Fem-tomboy

Fun and Wacky Facts! :

- He's totally besties with Sonic the Hedgehog! Oo they do fist bumps!

- He likes lightning wisps because he can use the electricity to suck up coins from the wishing well.

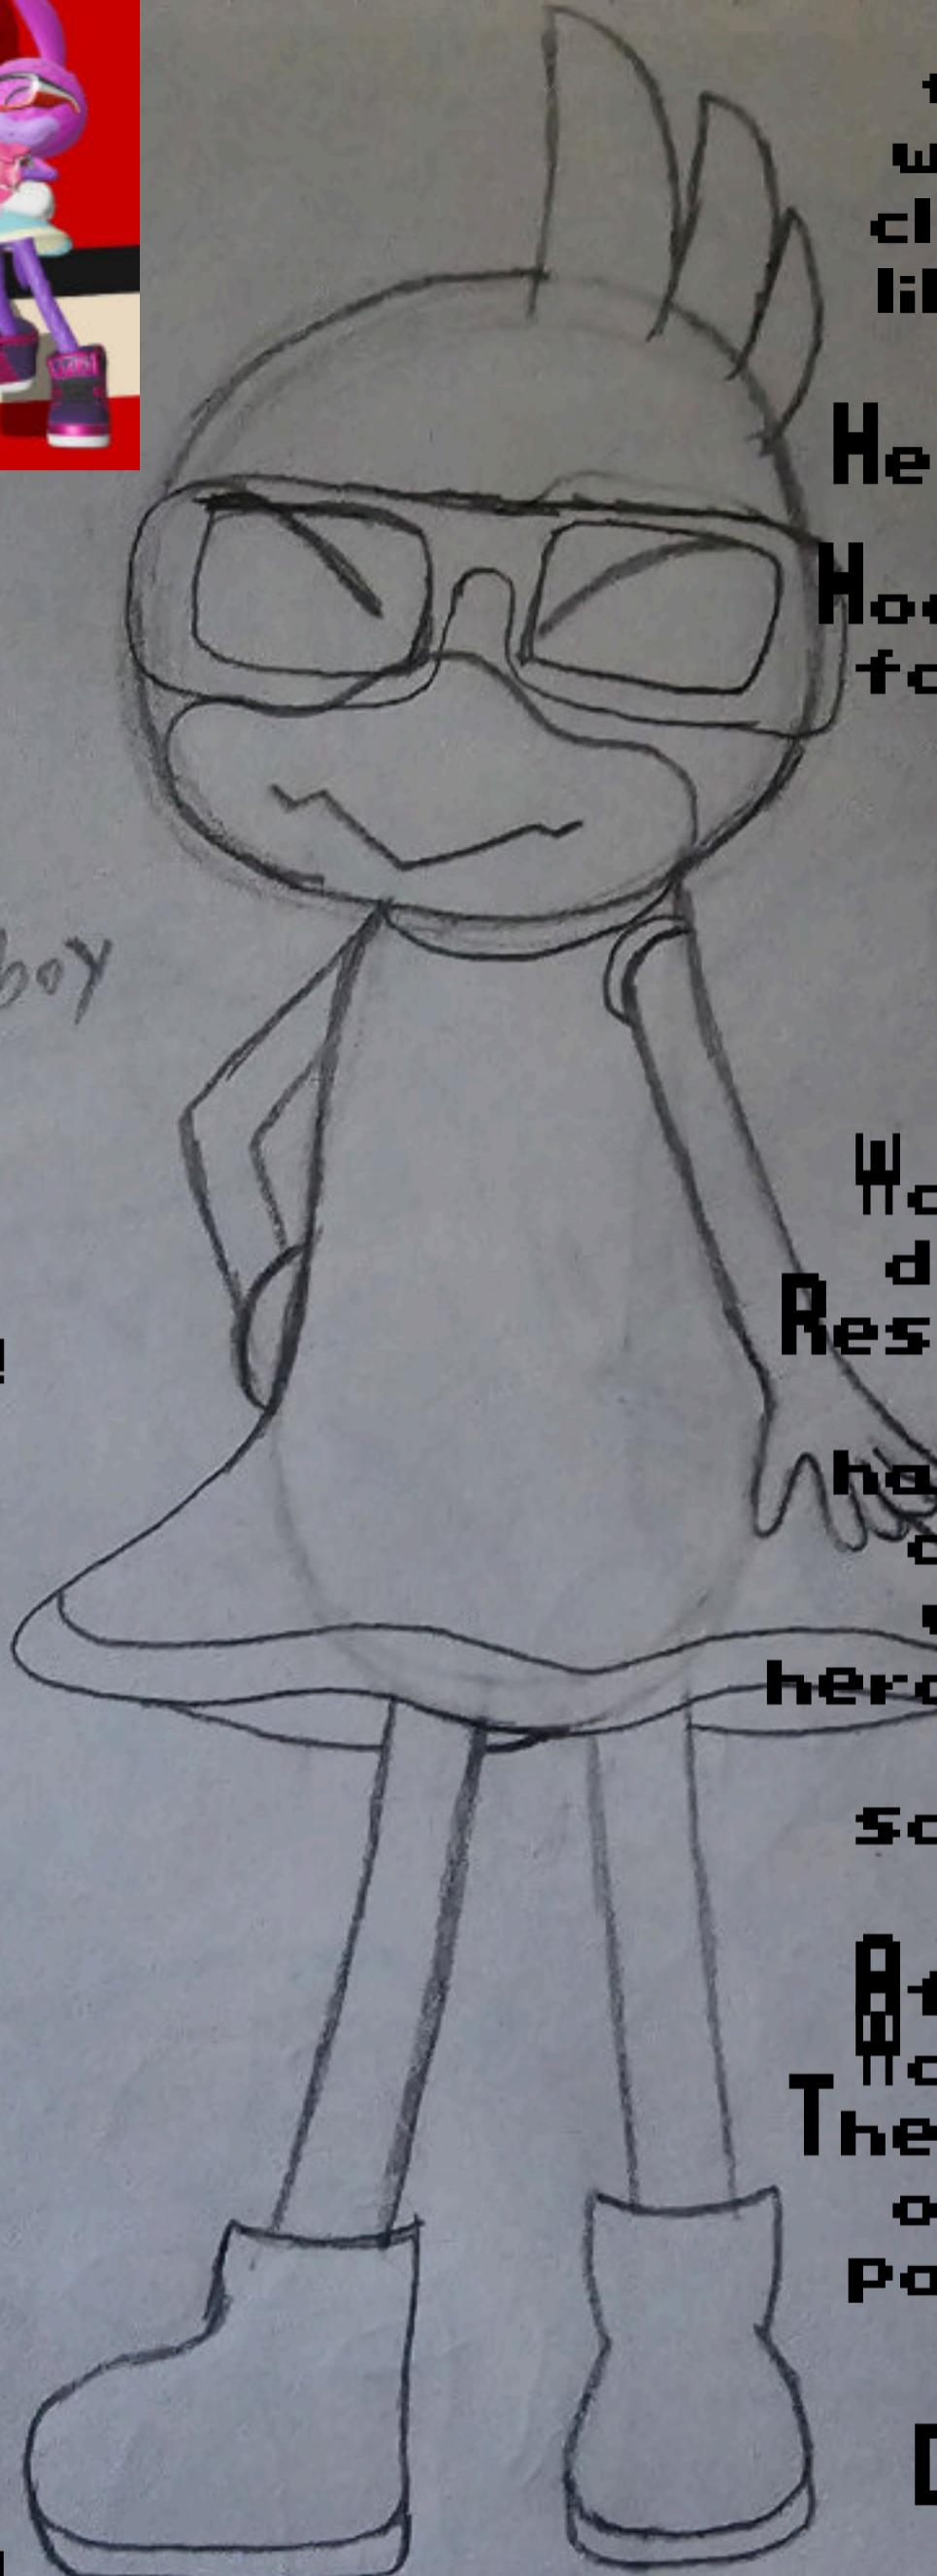

- He's banned from East Island for causing traffic accidents with his sick break dancing skills.

- His eyelids are always closed because he has no eyes. It's literally just red-black empty sockets. When he opens them he bleeds profusely.

- He always wears a full body lavender pink bodysuit. His feathers are actually gray, but his beak is purple.

- He's a geratophiliac and has 3 terabytes of tentacle hentai on his laptop.

- He is immune to all types of poison due to years of eating literal garbage.

Soot is a fem tomboy, he likes wearing women's clothing but acts like a totally rad dude.

He used to have a job at Femboy Hooters until they found out he was Stealing the Original Style Wings.

He was found outside the dumpster of Walmart and then drafted into the Resistance, forced to do all the hardest and most dangerous work while the actual heroes talk in their little cubicle or something, I don't know.

After winning the War To Take Back The Planet he went on to Star in the Post-Apocalyptic reboot of the classic Sitcom DinoSaur which lasted for 30 seasons.

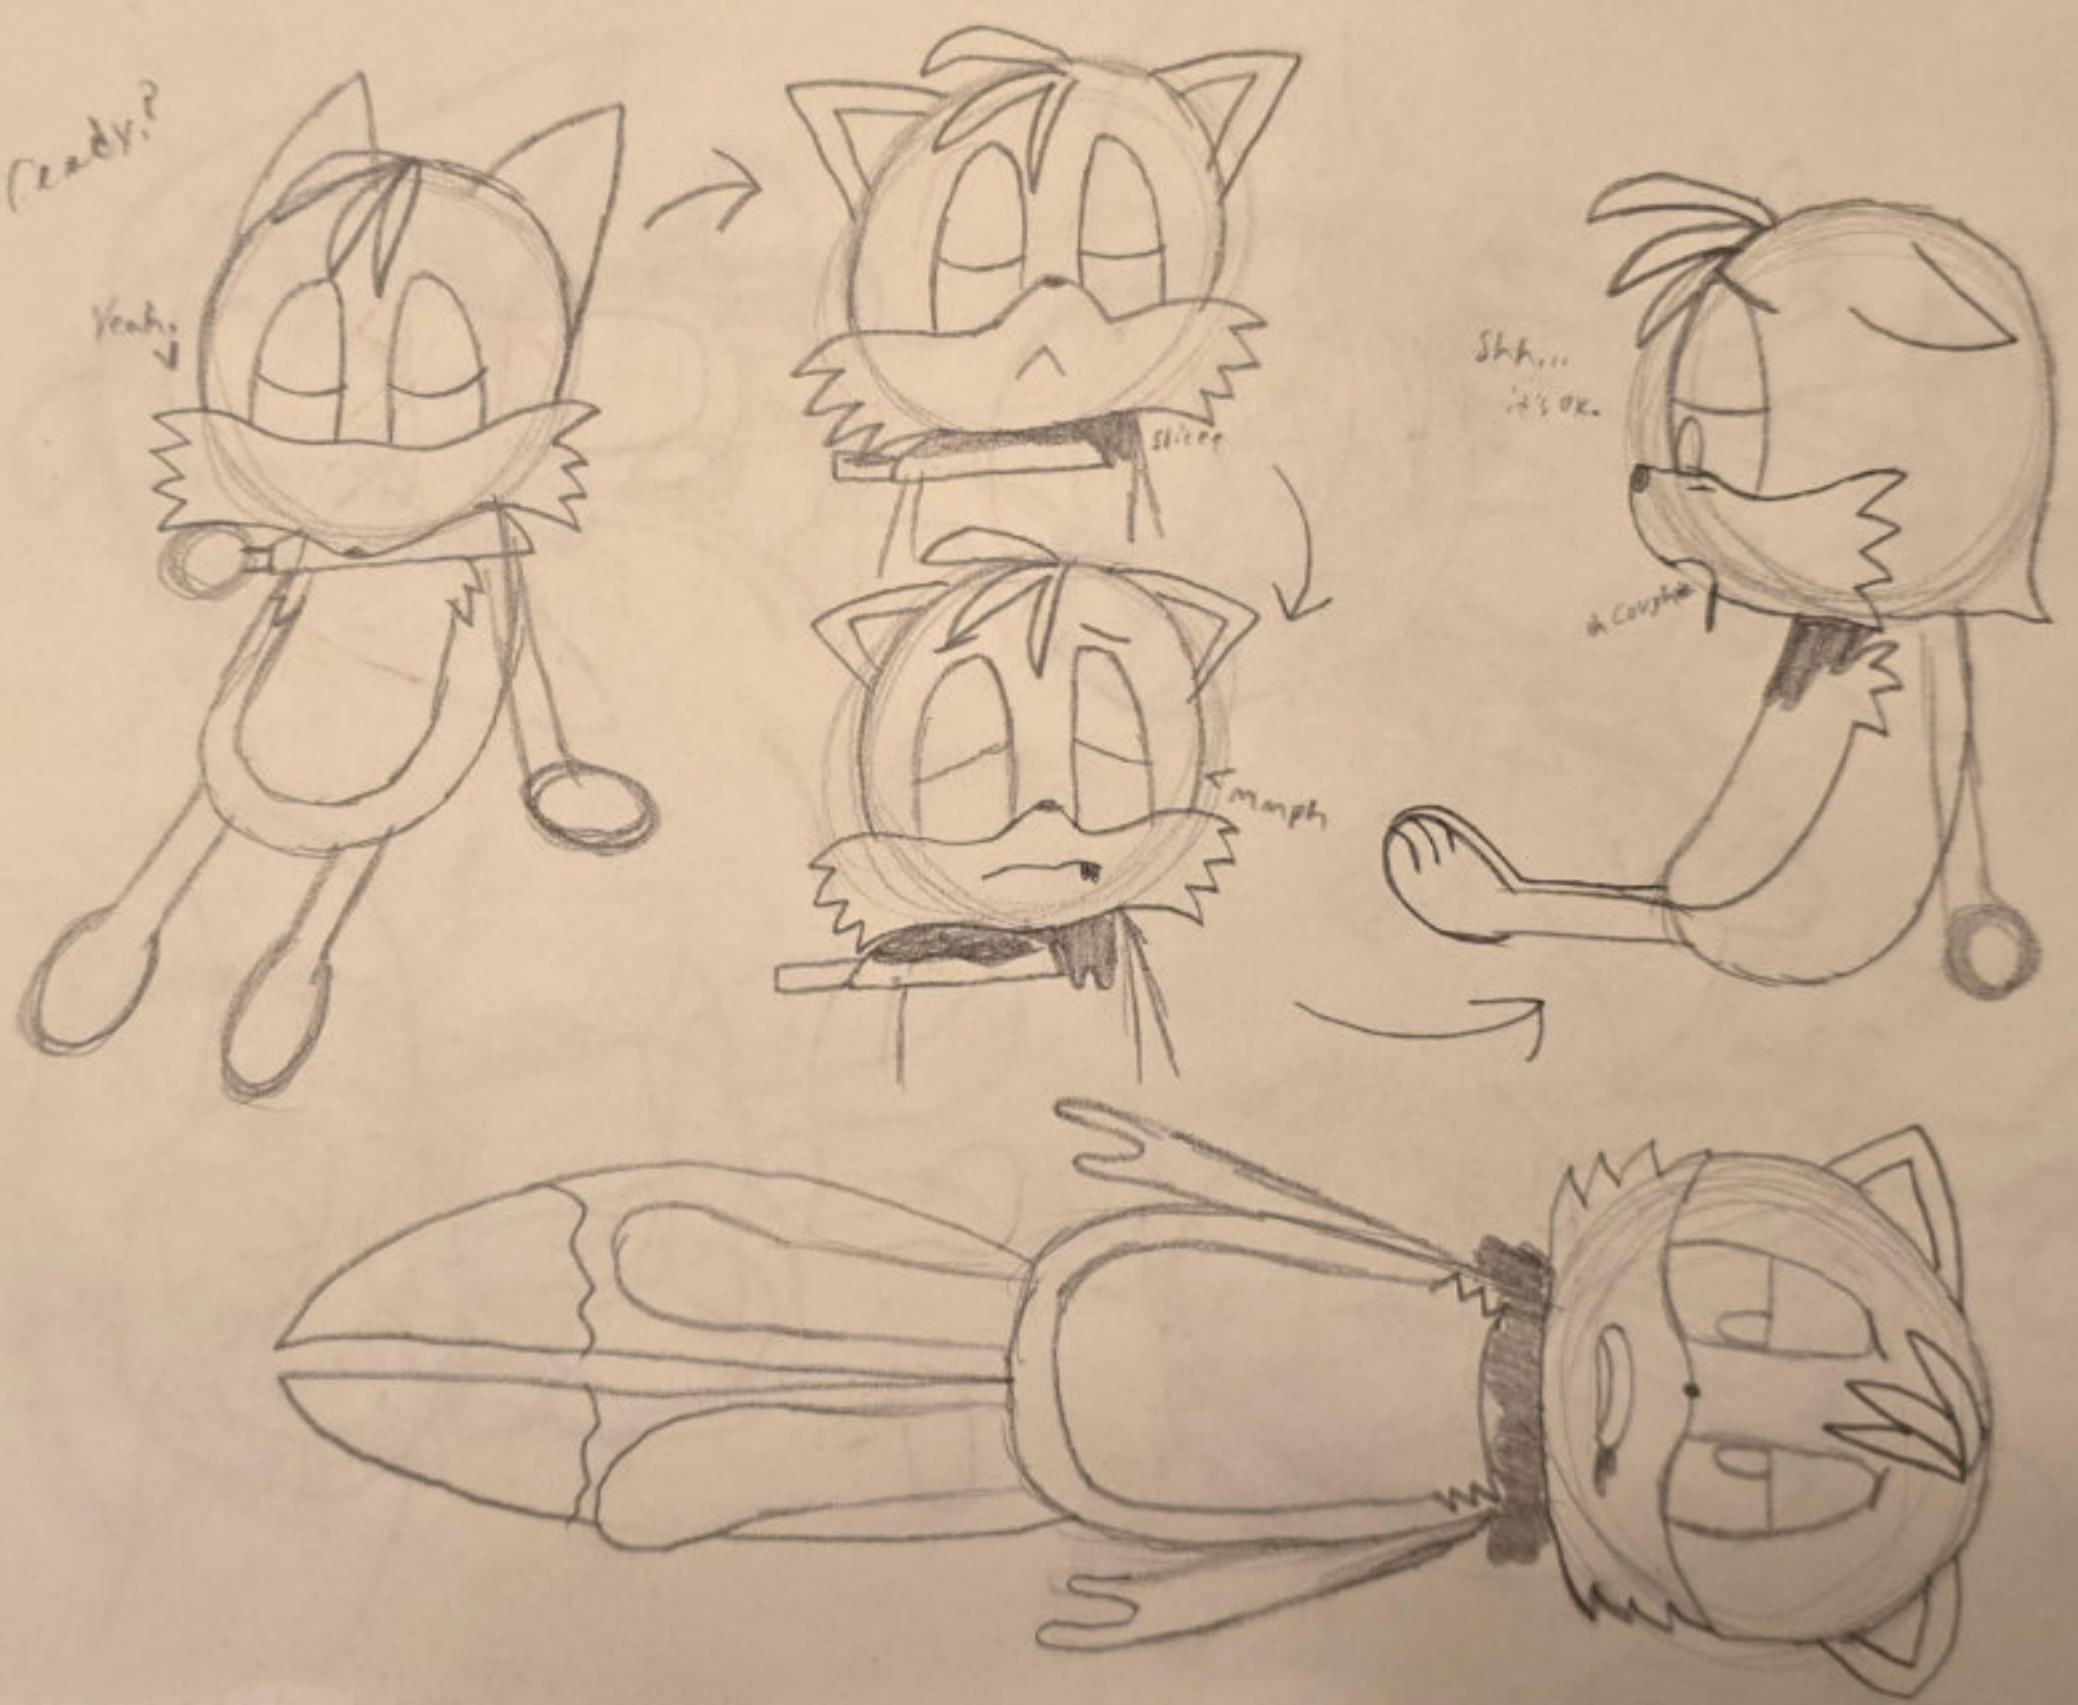

So, you like hedgehogs?
